

HARRYTOWN CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL
(Teacher of Science) - PERSON SPECIFICATION

	Essential	Desirable
Qualifications/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Qualified Teacher Status • Appropriate level 2 (GCSE/BTEC) qualifications • Appropriate level 3 Further Education (A levels etc) qualifications • Appropriate level 6 Higher Education (Degree) qualification(s) • Evidence of 'post related' CPD & training 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Appropriate Post Graduate qualification(s)
Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recent experience undertaking relevant work in a similar or related work environment (KS3 & KS4) • Successful record of working in a similar or related work environment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience in a range of educational phases
Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Proven record of success in a similar role • Ability to plan, deliver and evaluate the impact of the learning and teaching of self and others • Excellent communication and presentation skills • Ability to develop positive relationships with pupils, colleagues and parents (where necessary) • Good organisational and leadership skills • Ability to use IT effectively (for learning & teaching and as a management tool) • Proven ability to record, use, manipulate, analyse and interpret performance data 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The ability to inspire and motivate at all levels • A passion for your subject • Ability to demonstrate the ability to teach successfully Biology, Chemistry and Physics across both KS3 & KS4.
Knowledge & Understanding	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Proven record of delivering, and knowledge of, the published teachers standards • Understanding of current developments in schools and in the subject for which you are applying to teach • Understanding and knowledge of the mechanisms which underpin school performance and pupil progress • Proven skills in the classroom as both an academic and pastoral practitioner • Good understanding of how Health and Safety, equality legislation and the ethos of our Catholic school supports the scope of the role • Good understanding of how to ensure that safeguarding remains a priority in the work undertaken within the role 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience of strategies for raising pupil participation, progress and achievement • Knowledge of self-review procedures

Additional qualities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Commitment to supporting the work of schools, young people, parents and the wider community • Commitment to the success and well-being of all pupils of all abilities • Ability to lead in situations with both adults and young people. • Resilient and robust approach to working in a school environment • The ability to contribute positively to our school ethos, culture of well-being and journey of improvement • A willingness and enthusiasm to engage in continuing professional development and training 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Play an active part in the wider school community
Safeguarding	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The ability to demonstrate compliance with Safeguarding/Child Protection standards and an ability to comply to our commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. • Full cooperation with all safeguarding checks (ALL successful candidate will be required to submit to a full DBS [formerly CRB] check) • Candidates may write confidentially to the panel in respect of their past history relating to any outstanding case(s) or disqualification etc. These should be contained in a separate envelope marked 'confidential' along with their application form. • A fully completed application form is essential. Including grades for qualifications, classifications for higher education qualifications and there must be no gaps in dates regarding employment history from leaving school. Each referee must have their designation clearly stated.
References	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Schools of a Religious Character are permitted, where recruiting for Teaching posts, to give preference to applicants who are practising Catholics and, therefore, (in the case of Catholic applicants) one referee should be your Parish Priest/the Priest of the Parish where you regularly worship. It is the responsibility of the Applicant to ensure that all named referees, including Parish Priests (where applicable), have consented to providing a reference.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Failure to complete the most current CES application form template in full, will result in your application not being considered • You should not include a CV • We will seek to evaluate, through application, supporting statement and shortlisting/interview/references, how closely we feel your skills, experience, understanding and performance match the essential and desirable characteristics outlined above

'I have come that they have life and have it to the full' John 10:10